Suggested Solutions

Possible marks	Solution
30	There are no “correct” answers to this task as the nature of the answers depends on the piece of music used. Award marks accordingly. Encourage learners to supply reasons for their answers so that they learn to justify opinions. This can be used as a Baseline Assessment and then re-used as a Summative Assessment after learning about music has taken place. It will be interesting for learners to see how they are able to improve their evaluation of a piece of music once they have some theory to work with and have been trained to listen for certain elements of music.
