Assessment Task: Needs; Wants in the Community

The needs of your community (Pair activity)

Work with a partner and do a survey of your own community.

- Name five needs your community has. List them in order of priority in the table below. (Tip: clean running water is more important than sports facilities.)
- State whether each of the five needs you and your partner listed is adequately satisfied in your community.
- Give a reason for your findings in b). In other words, explain why you stated that a specific need is or is not adequately satisfied. Record factual information, for example, many shelters are informal settlements.

Copy the table below in your workbook and record your findings in the table. An example has been completed to assist you.

Community needs listed in order of priority	Is the need adequately satisfied in my community?	Reason for stating that need is or is not adequately satisfied
